Say Cheese

BuddhaChieff

Baby, I give up
You captured my attention, I surrender
Won't you say cheese? Im taking a mental picture
Just in case I dont get to leave with youAnd I bet you didnt even recognize what you mean
But I finally know what love at first sight is Now I know theres something when we made eye contact
If you feeling what Im feeling dont hold backGirl, wont you meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours
Girl, come meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours.Hey baby, keep it coming, hey, boo
Keep it coming, oh
Keep it coming ohh
Keep it coming, oh babyBaby, Im speechless
You bad from top to bottom, all the right features, you gotem
Sexy lady, I really mean it
I need you right beside me, please believe me babyAnd I almost wouldnt be here alone
Now hear that Im glad I didnt cause I wouldnt have found you my dear
Now Im doing everything to rush you back to my pad, girl
Wont you help me out? Youre a little faster than thatGirl, wont you meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours
Girl, come meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours.Hey baby, keep it coming, hey, hoo
Keep it coming, oh
Keep it coming ohh
Keep it coming, oh babyDont make me go and get you, grab you by your hand
Show you the kind of man that I am, yeah
We got nothing but love to gain
Im saying if you feel the sameGirl, wont you meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours
Girl, come meet me halfway, come just a little more
Come over here and get it girl, its all yours.Hey baby, keep it coming, hey, hoo
Keep it coming, oh
Keep it coming ohh
Keep it coming, oh baby
