

Kiss A Girl

Skye Sweetnam

Come on
Aha, aha
I talk, you say I'm talking back
It escalates to full attack
I'm going, you're coming
Your brain's on pause but your mouth keeps running
Don't know what planet you are from
What macho ego trip you're on
I'm giving, you're taking
You think I'm there but I'm really just faking
Oh, you're so the same cliché
And it makes me wanna run the other way
Maybe I should kiss a girl
Maybe I should change my world
You already know you make me sick
And this could be the cure
Girls know how to make it fun
And you know how to mess it up
Maybe you should learn to watch your tongue
'Cause, boy, I've had enough
Maybe I should kiss a girl
I'm trading your old dirty shirt
For high heels and a mini skirt
You're over, I'm under
I'll spell it out, it's making me wonder
Why am I still with you
When I know that it'll never work?
Why don't I just hit you
When you act like such a stupid jerk?
You know that I love you
But you get on my last every nerve
Oh man, I guess you'll never understand
Oh, you're so the same cliché
And it makes me wanna run the other way
Maybe I should kiss a girl
Maybe I should change my world
You already know you make me sick
And this could be the cure
Girls know how to make it fun

And you know how to mess it up
Maybe you should learn to watch your tongue
'Cause, boy, I've had enough
Maybe I should kiss a girl
I tried to tune you in
And not to turn you on
If you don't try to make a change
I'll be good as gone
Maybe I should kiss a girl, oh, oh
Maybe I should kiss a girl, oh, oh
Maybe I should kiss a girl
Maybe I should change my world
You already know you make me sick
And this could be the cure
Girls know how to make it fun
And you know how to mess it up
Maybe you should learn to watch your tongue
'Cause, boy, I've had enough
Maybe I should kiss a girl
Maybe I should kiss a girl
Maybe I should kiss a girl
