

This Is Not an Exit

Beecake

I've been feeling kind of foolish
There's nothing up but sky
And there's someone making toothpicks for us
One for every tree that has to die And I've been feeling so lonely
And a wolf sleeps at my door
They've built another car park
'Cause God knows
We don't need the churches anymore I'm feeling kind of lonely
No emotions for no one
I'm feeling kind of seasick
We're stuck now on this journey
And the plan is on the run
This is not an exit I dreamt of something lately
I sank into the mud and grew a head
And a nice man put me on TV
Where the audience choose
Who and when I wed And I've been feeling so lonely
And a wolf sits at my door
An they've built another car park
God knows we don't need the churches any more I'm feeling kind of lonely
On this journey to nowhere
I'm feeling kind of seasick
Just need someone to hold me
All the people turn and stare
You should all just get to know me I'm feeling kind of lonely
No emotion for no one
I'm feeling kind of seasick
We're stuck now on this journey
And the plan is on the run
This is not an exit
Until you let it... All is nothing
Everything is one
Dream your dreams and
Know everything will come All is nothing
Everything is one
Dream your dreams and
Know everything will come
Everything will come! All is nothing
Everything is one

Dream your dreams and
Know everything will come....
