Candy Candy

Medicine

the light at dawn is mystery
she holds out her hand velvet green
alive at night you know it's right it creeps down your spine you couldn't sleep now she's all you seeit creeps down your spine. velvet green.a kiss at dawn is mystery you think it's showing bittersweetcandy candy. give it to me. i want it bittersweet candy candy. give it to me...the kiss at dawn is mystery
she holds out her hand
likes what she sees to break a heart to mend your ways it only takes seven days you know everything. everything's upside-down.candy candy. give it to me. i want it slow and sweet.
candy candy. give it to me...it melts your mouth slow and sweet.
