The Longest Time (Jaimee's Song)

Paul Morrison

If I could stay here and say all the things I liked about you
It would take the longest time.
If I were to list the things Iâ€™d miss if I somehow had to be without you
That would take the longest time.

But I got you girl and just your smile makes me smile
Things between us feel just fine.
Cause I ainâ€™t going anywhere and when youâ€™re done Iâ€™ll still be here
And Iâ€™ll love you for the longest time.

If I could give you everything Iâ€™d like to give you
I would need a lot of dimes.
And if I read out of my head all the words I wish that Iâ€™d never said
Well, thereâ€™d be way too many lines.

But I got you now and just your smile makes me smile
Things between us feel just fine.
Cause I ainâ€™t going anywhere and when youâ€™re done Iâ€™ll still be here
And Iâ€™ll love you for the longest time.

If I could hold you close and whisper that I love you
I would take the longest time.
And even if you wonder when or if Iâ€™ll ever let go of you
I want the world to know youâ€™re mine.

But I got you now and just your smile makes me smile
Things between us feel just fine.
Cause I ainâ€™t going anywhere and when youâ€™re done Iâ€™ll still be here
And Iâ€™ll love you for the longest time.
Yes Iâ€™ll love you for the longest time
