

Mutron Angel (Featuring Whild Peach)

OutKast

In the eye of the storm
Looking out through the rain
Gabriel, blow your horn
They shield me from tsunamis and the hurricane[Chorus]
Catch the right ride in the nick of time
Soldiers stay affronted then they blow your mind
Bold ass soldiers marching off to war
No idea what we're in for
Powerful, magnificent and so divine
Soldiers stay affronted it'll blow your mindHear a thunderous voice
Shouting there will be no peace
Until our people rejoice
When every boy and girl is freed
You see it's going down
The wars and the mysteries
But my friends, there'll be better days
And a better way
According to the prophecy[Bridge]
It would be so nice
To look up at paradise
By all means we must go
Or are you in the know
Like all the way up, so child,You been a friend of mine[Chorus]You been a friend of mine[Bridge]
