

The Frontline

King Tubby

with every context of crisis that you bend - with every arsenal and all the weaponry you invent with every poverty-line, that you assign - you shape the frontline - you bury landmines the frontline - the frontline
the frontline - the frontlinesilent, hidden armies, handling our disappeared - the narco-cide and the gods that guide it they're always oh so fucking clear - cryptomnesia lashes out as the cover falls behind you shape the frontline - - you bury landmines[chorus:] the frontline - the frontline - it suits me fine the frontline - the frontline - you bury landminesbullet riddled bodies for the hedonist fuck - you got me dying to resist because the undermined outweigh the satisfied - corrode, reload - economist come on, and run anomalies - our people would be better off as enemies in these dire-need democracies - we're all refugees - refugees[chorus]charity - luxury - positioned so comfortably equity - battery - shake hand with hypocrisy charity - luxury - positioned so comfortably equity - battery - hypocrisy the context of crisis is bent the practice is losing intent[chorus]
