

Apparition

Most Precious Blood

You always knew just how to bury your sins, beneath my skin i am the fevered words, you wished you'd never said i am the saddest song that haunts you, in your sleep i am the thought that wakes you from, your sweetest dreams Tonight I'll walk these halls, Studying the cracks in the walls
To die internally, To die eternally
The death of all that i dreamed, shaken from your sweetest dream From death's grasp, i shall rise, and will rise, one last time No one dies, no one dies alone, i'll send these chills, straight through your bones.
i am not, anyone you know, ghost from your past, here to seize your soul when the tears top the laughter, its time to go home, and here i am the greatest lie, you ever told i am the incision that leaves behind, the deepest scar i am your heart, when your head says walk away Tonight I'll walk these halls, Studying the cracks in the walls
To die internally, To die eternally
No one dies, no one dies alone, i'll send these chills, straight through your bones.
i am not, anyone you know, ghost from your past,
here to seize your soul
The death of all that i dreamed,
shaken from your sweetest dream
