Hateful Design

Graveworm

Confessions of your mind after thousand days of killing
Death was my life and pain where my thoughts
Pleasure of the death, there is no regret
Boiling in my veinsAnother death, another lust
In my eyes there is something wrong
Another life, another soul
Nobody gives a damnThe plague will unleashed and the race will begun
Run for desire for the lust to die
The innocent souls and the smell in the air
Killing, raping, destroying of soulsWatch them cross the line of life
Do not feel the pain inside
Emotions are gone, every breath he takes
Take control of their essence of lifeBloodred face of lust
Take the chance, do it again
Screaming out for blood
Silence on the overgroundCalling the death
Mortals have [Incomprehensible] to be
Motionless, stand afraid
One more time my hateful designCarnal desires the treasure to survive
Watching out for victims, visions of a dying world
Screaming bodies surrounded by pain
The neverending ritual will always goes onOnce again another fight
You choose your way to die
Another time, another friend
Let the show start againBloodred face of lust
Take the chance, do it again
Screaming out for blood
Silence on the overgroundCalling the death
Mortals have [Incomprehensible] to be
Motionless, stand afraid
One more time my hateful design
My hateful design
