

I Will Fail You

Demon Hunter

These quiet words, they carry me away
Returning
They keep coming back
In idle thoughts and hollow cutaways
Disarm me
No will to attack Though the sorrow and fear they may depart you today I will fail you
Of that I'm sure
I will remind you of the pain forevermore
And when my sins are just a memory
Faith restored
I will fail you
To the core Lost in the shadow of an endless grace
Relentless
My reign is unbound
In this abandon I will devastate
Dismember
'Til agony's found Though the sorrow and fear they may depart you today I will fail you
Of that I'm sure
I will remind you of the pain forevermore
And when my sins are just a memory
Faith restored
I will fail you
To the core I know they prey upon me
I feel them just beyond my I will fail you
Of that I'm sure
I will remind you of the pain forevermore
And when my sins are just a memory
Faith restored
I will fail you
To the core I will fail you
Of that I'm sure
I will remind you of the pain forevermore
And when my sins are just a memory
Faith restored
I will fail you
To the core
