Crash

New Kids On the Block

These are the days of the times of our life,
And we're gonna crash into it tonight
We're gone at the music and our bodies collide,
Get ready to blast off, 'cause we're gonna crash
To the moon and the stars in the sky
We're gonna crash into it tonight
Into the music and outta of your mind,
Get ready to blast off, and we're gonna crashThe way you got me speeding, I don't want to take it slow,
My body's overheating as I feel you getting closer
My heart is racing, this could be unstoppable,
I can't describe the feeling I be feeling as I crash into youYou're in my headlights,
You been trying it all night
Ignore the stop signs, let's go lose control'Cause these are the days of the times of our life,
And we're gonna crash into it tonight
We're gone at the music and our bodies collide,
Get ready to blast off, 'cause we're gonna crash
To the moon and the stars in the sky
We're gonna crash into it tonight
Into the music and outta of your mind,
Get ready to blast off, and we're gonna crashDon't make me hit the brakes, girl, I like the way you drive
Two hundred miles an hour, let the moment take you over
Fast lane, get you there in no time,
I can't describe the feeling that I'm feeling as I crash into youYou're in my headlights,
You been trying it all night.
Ignore the stop signs, let's go lose control'Cause these are the days of the times of our life,
And we're gonna crash into it tonight
We're gone at the music and our bodies collide,
Get ready to blast off, 'cause we're gonna crash
To the moon and the stars in the sky
We're gonna crash into it tonight
Into the music and outta of your mind,
Get ready to blast off, and we're gonna crashCrashC'monDance'Cause we're gonna crash to the moon and the stars in the sky
We're gonna crash into it tonight.
Into the music and out of your mind,
Get ready to blast off, 'cause we're gonna crashCrashCrashC'monDance
