How I Get What I Deserve

Blowsight

Whatever happened to joy?
Whatever happened to luxury?
Whatever happened to girl meets boy?
Whatever happened to me?Whatever happened to fame?
Whatever happened to Baby Jane?
You know I never stop thinking
And it's keeping me strong
That is how (that is how)
How I get what I deserveWe are bleeding more
Hideout looking for war
To the pain
to the stars
There is more, and I know who we are
We can't stop them all
We sure can try to break the wall
From the rain
To the lies
Now you know how I get what deserveWhatever happened to smiles?
whatever happened to complexity?
whatever happened to your soon to be when the burden is not me?Whatever happened to love?
A simple word, never been used the only word you dare not to choose
But I do -
That is how (that is how)
How I get what I deserveWe are bleeding more
Hideout looking for war
To the pain
to the stars
There is more, and I know who we are
We can't stop 'em all
We sure can try to break the wall
From the rain (and the pain)
To the lies
Now you know how I get what deserveTake the left, take the right
Use the Smith n Wesson
Take the right, do it wrong
you will learn a lesson
Take the left, take the right

Use the Smith n Wesson
Take the right, do it wrong -
And I'll dedicate every songWe are bleeding more
Hideout looking for war
To the pain
to the stars
There is more, and I know who we are
We can't stop them all
We sure can try to break the wall
From the rain (and the pain)
To the lies
Now you know how I get what deserveTo the pain
to the stars
There is more, and I know who we are
From the rain (and the pain)
To the lies
Now you know how I get what deserve
