Beautiful

Alex Lloyd

All goodbyes disappeared
When I first set my eyes on you
I found a world so pure and blueToday, I vow to you
That every little piece you see
Is coming from the part of meYou are so beautiful
And you're filling up my day
With the things I can't explainYou are so beautiful
And we're holding on today
Yeah, we're holding on, holding onAmong the broken glass
A road we've all been down before
But this time there's an open doorA code so set and sealed
But nothing is unbreakable
And every missing pieces fitYou are so beautiful
And you're filling up my day
With the things I can't explainYou are so beautiful
And we're holding on today
Yeah, we're holding on, holding onAll goodbyes disappearedYou are so beautiful
And you're filling up my day
With the things I can't explainYou are so beautiful
And we're holding on today
Yeah, we're holding on, holding onYou are so beautiful
And you're filling up my day
With the things I can't explainYou are so beautiful
And we're holding on today
Yeah, we're holding on, holding onIt started with a simple feeling, yeah
It started for a simple reason, yeah
