Where We Belong

Kate Alexa

I wake up in the mornin
I just wanna hide
I wanna get away
And find my other side
Another place I
Just cant describe
I call the girls up
They all feel the same
We know a place where
We can hide away
I gotta get away
Before I go insane
Were runnin away for good vibrations
Were finding our way to sweet sensations
Were runnin away to where we belong
Yeah
Were searching our way through deep blue oceans
Were making our way with our minds in motion
Were gonna be where we all belong
Where we all belong
So come on
Lets move away from the shore
Lets drift away
Cant get enough
Want it more and more
Dont wanna think about
When this has to end
I wanna think about
How it all began
I dont care coz
Im havin fun with my friends
Yeah
Were runnin away for good vibrations
Were finding our way to sweet sensations
Were runnin away to where we belong
Yeah
Were searching our way through deep blue oceans
Were making our way with our minds in motion

Were gonna be where we all belong
Where we all belong
And evry time we feel this way
Our secret place will save our day
Where we will always feel free
(x2)
Oh,
Were runnin away for good vibrations
Were finding our way to sweet sensations
Were runnin away to where we belong
Yeah
Were searching our way through deep blue oceans
Were making our way with our minds in motion
Were gonna be where we all belong
Where we all belong
