

I'll Call U Back

Erykah Badu

I'm in the kitchen, I'm cooking and mixing and fixing
The sauces and I'll call you back
Running around in the city, I'm running I like it
I'm busy so I'll call you back
Flipping the switches and bitches come witness
That you're in your feelings and I'll call you back
Never the life of the party but I'll get it started
This business and I'll call you back It's business, we've been this
It's business, we've been this and I'll call you back
It's business, it's business
It's business, it's business and I'll call you back
It's business, we've been this
It's business, we've been this and I'll call you back
It's business, it's business
It's business, it's business and I'll call you Back, back, back, back, back, back, back, back
Back, back, back, back, back, back, back, back
Back, back, back, back, back, back, back, back
And I'll call you back, back, back, back, back
Back, back, back, back, back, back, back, back
