

Preacher

My Ruin

It was a long time ago
Longer now than it seems
A place that perhaps
You have seen in your dreamsWelcome to my world
Is it what you thought it would be?
I'm trapped inside this hell
Between blood queen and purgatoryA coop filled covered hall
A tattooed baby doll
I've got the devil in my corner
And Jesus on my wallToday is an oatmeal day
I feel like a monster babe
Preacher save me with your call
And I will be your little Miss ScareallOne eye's green, one eye's blue
Demons, angels, a love that's true
Catch me as I start to fall
Let me be your little Miss ScareallHalloween is over
But I will keep you scared
Take you to the fright side
I know, you'll come preparedBy your deadly nightshade
Turn your Christmas black
And you can be my Johnny
Homicidal maniacToday is an oatmeal day
I feel like a monster babe
Preacher save me with your call
And I will be your little Miss ScareallOne eye's green, one eye's blue
Demons, angels, a love that's true
Catch me as I start to fall
Let me be your little Miss ScareallForgive me preacher
For I have sinned
It's been 3 weeks
Since my first confessionI am the one hiding under your bed
My teeth are sharp, my lips are red
I am the one hiding under your stairs
With snakes and spiders in her hairLittle Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss ScareallLittle Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall
Little Miss Scareall

Little Miss Scareall
I feel like a monster babe
