

Birthday Boy (2017 Remastered Version)

Pet Shop Boys

Birthday boy
can't explain
Christmas Eve
He's born again On the line a broken train
going nowhere
Endless rain Birthday Boy
so afraid
plays the machines
in the arcade
Oh baby do you remember
he's been through all this before?
Spent the summer
getting nowhere
Taking all of the blame for the city
calculating
from pain comes pity Christmas Eve a time of joy
if you believe in Birthday Boy This time around it's all a mistake
Is he deluded
or just a fake?
Oh baby do you remember
he's been through all this before?
Spent the summer
getting nowhere
Taking all of the blame
for the city
calculating
from pain comes pity If you knew his name would you feel the same?
If you knew his name? Birthday boy stands apart
as the drama's
about to start A quick betrayal
A speedy trial
As before

complete denial Oh baby do you remember

he's been through all this before?

Spent the summer

getting nowhere

Taking all of the blame

for the city

calculating

would you feel the same?
