

Eyes Off You

Bombay Bicycle Club

Your letters wait at home
In their bright red coats
Under a midnight stone
I hear four words you wrote:
I can't be sad, sad, sad, sad
I can't make you mine Now you're on your own
Even they can't stand
But I said before
And you know that
I can't take my eyes, eyes, eyes
Eyes off you And I bathed in the light you gave
But it's dark in another way
Yes, you gave me the light today
But it's dark in another way And I bathed in the light you gave
But it's dark in another way
Yes, you gave me the light today
But it's dark, it's dark, it's dark I can't be sad
I can't be sad
I can't be sad
I can't be sad I can't take my eyes, eyes, eyes
Eyes off you
