

Baby Be Crazy

Brantley Gilbert

Well, you know they say
They say that I'm a rollin' stone
Girl, that boy's a dead end road
Yeah, you're better off alone
And I know I can't say
Girl, I can't say they're wrong
I'm pretty set in my ways
But maybe it's time that changed
And all you wanna know is
What's it gonna take You'd have to be crazy to love me
Oh, but I wish you would
You'd have to be outta your mind
But deep inside, I think you could
Be the only chance in hell to save me from myself
So come on save me, oh yeah
Baby, be crazy I know you say
You say you're gonna hang on
To this train wreck, baby
So you think you're that strong
Deep down, what I want
I want you to tie me down
I want so bad to trust you
Baby, don't burn me now
All we can do is try
I ain't tryin' to say goodbye You'd have to be crazy to love me
Oh, but I wish you would
You'd have to be outta your mind
But deep inside, I think you could
Be the only chance in hell to save me from myself
So come on save me, oh yeah
Baby, be crazy, oh
