They Say It's Gonna Rain

Hazell Dean

Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho
Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu hoThey say it's gonna rain, blue skies gonna break
Can you tell me why to do good things always have to end?It seems like yesterday, we'd only just begun
Laughing in the sun I thought you'd be my life-long friendLove is cruel, it cuts in two between pleasure and pain
Between sunshine and rain and between me and youI'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive
And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love againAm I the last to know, oh to see your love grow cold
Suddenly I feel a shadow hanging over meLove is cruel, it cuts in two between pleasure and pain
Between sunshine and rain and between me and youI'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive
And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love againMusutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho
Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu hoI'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive
And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love again
