

They Say It's Gonna Rain

Hazell Dean

Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho

Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho They say it's gonna rain, blue skies gonna break

Can you tell me why to do good things always have to end? It seems like yesterday, we'd only just begun
Laughing in the sun I thought you'd be my life-long friend Love is cruel, it cuts in two between pleasure and pain

Between sunshine and rain and between me and you I'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive
And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love again Am I the last to know, oh to see your love grow cold

Suddenly I feel a shadow hanging over me Love is cruel, it cuts in two between pleasure and pain
Between sunshine and rain and between me and you I'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive

And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love again Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho

Musutu yanga hey hey, umsala kulu ho I'm alive, they say it's gonna rain, but I'll survive

And though I'm crying out that I'm in pain, I will love again
