Silent Scream

Gov't Mule

Hey, what's the use, daily excuse
And what's it all mean to me
Pride pushed aside, thanks for the ride
More is in store, you'll seeHey, we're all trapped in a silent screamLife's worth the price, don't you think twice?
Just 'cause it's unjust to you
Why not rejoice, what's the other choice?
When death like your dreams will come soonHey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent screamSearch for the truth, no one has proof
But faith is all you need to believeHey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
Hey, we're all trapped in a silent scream
