Blackmail

We were young
And none of us know quite what to say
    But the feeling moved
        Among us in silence anyway
        Slowly we had madeQuite a change
        Somewhere we had crossed a big line
            Down upon our knees
            We had tasted holy wine
            And no one could sway us
            In a life timePurer than the sky
                Behind the rain
                Falling down all around us
            Calling out from a boundless loveLove had lit a fire
                We were the flame
                Burning into the darkness
                Shining out from inside usNot a word
                    And no one had to say
                    We were changed
                    Nothing else we lived through
                    Would ever be same the same
                        Knowing the truth
                    That we had gainedPurer than the sky
                        Behind the rain
                        Falling down all around us
            Calling out from a boundless loveLove had lit a fire
                We were the flame
                Burning into the darkness
                Shining out from inside usStay with me
                    Make it ever new
                    So time will not undo
                    As the years go by
                    How I need to see
                    That's still meFalling down all around us
    Calling out from a boundless loveYeahBurning into the darkness
        Shining out from inside usPurer than the sky
                Behind the rain
                Falling down all around us
    Calling out from a boundless loveLove has lit a fire
        I am the flame

Burning into the darkness
Shining out from inside usPurer than the sky
Behind the rain
Falling down all around us
Calling out from a boundless love
(Ohh)Love has lit a fire
I am the flame
Burning into the darkness
Behind the rain
Falling down all around us
