Zipper Job

Zz Top

ZipHe, she wanna be
A body and soul just don't agree
There's an answer, gotta go
For a Tijuana tuck 'n' rollHe, she just got a zipper job
A zipper jobIt ain't nothin', it ain't no thing
Just changin' face of Yin and Yang
It ain't no callin' for alarm
It's just a different kind of charmIt's alright, on one condition
Certainty before transition
No one even need a clue
Just pull the old switch-a-rooHe, she done got a brand new glistenin' zipper job
Oh yes, a zipper job, yeah, yeahFlip, strip, zip, trip a talon forty twoTiming is everything
For Kings, queens, and in betweens
It's a question of what to do
'Cos what is what and who is who?He, she just got a zipper job
An everlasting zipper job
Yeah, yeah, yeah, hey
