

You Never Know

Joe Walsh

Secrets always travel farther than they should
And loose translations
Float around the neighbourhood
And rumours don't do anyone a bit of good
They just get started, funny you never know
The first-amendment vigilante attitude
The gospel truth according to the book of Someone said so
The Front-Line grapevine jury's in a nasty mood
You might be guilty, honey you'll never know
Did you hear about the gossip-column
Senate subcommittee probe
The allegations put the neck around your rope
The nominations droolin' on the envelope
A likely story, funny you'll never know
You never know
