

I Will Take You Home

Ed Sheeran

I stole a car last night,
Don't know where we're gonna go,
But go ahead and drive,
I will take you home Honey it's cold outside,
(Mmm) And your jumper is torn now,
But darling hold on tight,
I will keep you warm, And we will cry till this fire is drowned,
And we will ride all our memories down (Mm),
And we will drive till these tires wear out,
But darling I, I will take you home If we could drive all night,
Until the sun is shone up,
I'll see it in your eyes (yeah),
(Mmm) They will take me home, Honey it's so damn bright,
Daylight's taking over again,
(Mmm) Just follow the signs (ooh ooh)
They will lead us home And we will cry till this fire is drowned,
And we will ride all our memories down,
And we will drive till these tires wear out,
But darling I, I will take you home And we will drive till these tires wear out
And we will ride all our memories down,
And we will cry till this fire is drowned, But darling I, I will keep you warm
Oh darling, I, I will keep you warm
(and) Darling I, I will take you home
