Say

38 Acres

What I wanted for us isn't nothing
Like the things we do to make us feel this isn't real
And although we both know that our egos go toe to toe
To show who really has the wheel
We do not see how easily we come unglued
And every word you say to me makes me confused
You couldn't even trust me (no diggity) when I left the house
You need to try to love me (you gotta back it up) when I'm not around
So say what you want or say you don't want me and I'll be out
Well I gotta bounce or say that you want me
I am willing to bet that in time
You would have said the same thing that I did
And just assuming I'm alright, I must confess
That this loneliness and me dealing with all your shit

It goes right through me
So do we move i know we should
When all the bad outweighs the good
I know we'd be better off alone
I'm not the guy to put up with your pride
Oh girl i gotta fly
So say what you want or say you don't want me and I'll be out
Well I gotta bounce or say that you want me
Baby i've cried and prayed that I don't have no more
More for you deep inside
Can you just please, just tell me now
That you aint a part of my life
So say what you want or say you don't want me and I'll be out
Well I gotta bounce or say that you want me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/