In the time we spent togetherWhenever you want to see me
You'll be able to see my smileSomehow, this is kind of destiny
The short moment our eyes met
All my world lost its light
And I could see only you like a lieIt's okay, I'll walk with you
On the every street we used to walk togetherEven when you stop walking because you're exhausted
You're able to take a rest with meSometimes I'm scared
My appearance has been changed since I've met youMy heart is filled like it's overflowing
Everything inside me is tinged with youLike living in zero gravity
It feels like I'm floating all day on the cloudsYou don't push the doorbell
But you come in and out of my mind(my love) You go around every day
(my voice) I'm a nightingale, I sing to find youThe time we walk together
It's sweet and cozyIt's okay, I'll walk with you
On the every street we used to walk togetherEven when you stop walking because you're exhausted
You're able to take a rest with meI'm OK, I'll stand here
In the time we spent togetherWhenever you want to see me
You'll be able to see my smile
