

Winding Down

Hit the Lights

Everything is winding down
Man Im so tried of waiting around
My whole life Ive been waiting around
Waiting around for something to happenEverybody wants to go out on the town
But I just wanna rest, I just wanna rest my head
Sometimes you dont get want you want
When you want itRun away, determined to stay half the night
To keep her hangovers at bay
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment oh
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment nowThis bottle is my winner card
It helps to clear my thick head
Protect me from this bitter cold
Man what the hell were you drinking?Nobody wants to go out on the town
Yeah, they just wanna rest, they just wanna rest
I cant wait to go out on the town but they just wanna rest
You can rest when youre deadRun away, determined to stay half the night
To keep her hangovers at bay
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment oh
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgmentRun away, determined to stay half the night
To keep her hangovers at bay
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment oh
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment nowHow many days do you live your life?
How many ways can I end mine?
How many tries till I get it right
Will it ever be enough? Will it ever be enough?Everybody wants to go out on the town
But I just wanna rest, I just wanna rest
All my life Ive been lost and found
Hanging out with my friend livin up our dead endsEverybody's trying to get away from this town
Yeah, they dont wanna rest, they think its for the best
If we get the hell right out of this town
We will never rest, you can rest when your deadRun away, determined to stay half the night
To keep her hangovers at bay
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment oh
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgmentRun away, determined to stay half the night
To keep her hangovers at bay
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment oh
I shouldnt go but I've lost my judgment now
