

You And I

honeyhoney

Say hallelujah I never knew ya until now
I couldn't use you, bruise you, screw you
Lift and let you down 'Cause I played for myself
My rules and my hell to raise and burn me out
I'm sold on what we've got now
You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I now If this was then now, honey
I wouldn't be your friend I would jerk you off and sell you out
Take what I wanted, and flaunt it
My heart was haunted with the ghosts of all my doubt
'Cause I played for myself
My rules and my hell to raise and burn me out
I'm sold on what we've got now
You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I now I wouldn't trade
I wouldn't sell
Come high water or hell
I'm gonna love you well If you were the ground
I'd lay in the dirt
Roll on the rocks and let it hurt
'Cause I've been homeless
Been a slave to loneliness
You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I
You and I
Yeah I would die for you and I
You and I
I would die for you and I now
