

Don't Need U

LeToya

hmmmmmm

its monday morning ckecked my cell phone
but nobodys calling me
no i tried to ignore it but its sinking in and im all alone with me whoa so i stare at your picture for the last time to ease my mine this time i wont even brake down and cry i had good reason for leaving you i was never enough for you you had me down and myself couldnt be down

cause i keep smiling
and ima keep it moving
cause i dont need you,dont need you,dont need you, dont need you, ima keep smiling and ima keep it moving
dont need you no more,no more,no more,no more no more,no more,no more and baby i stayed with you so long that i lost my cell now who what of thought that someone so independent but come so damn suminsive and sometimes in the back of my mind i be missing you missing you but i can get though this cause i can do better so much better so i stare at your picture for the last time to ease my mined this time i wont even brake down and cry i had a good reason for leaving you i was never enough of you you had me down and myself couldnt be down

[repeat 2x's]

cause ima keep smiling
dont need you,no more cuz i been down and out to long its time to pick my head up baby im tired of beening fed up baby this heart braking today i'll be moving on and i wont give up on love

cause ima keep on smiling
no more,no hahaha
