He's so Strange

The Go-Go's

He's coming out tonight
He'll walk outside the light
You'll feel him very near
Confusion, nothing's clearHis presence cold and stark
Like a shadow in the dark
You're scared but you won't run
You almost wish it was over and doneYou can't escape the thought of him
Do you wonder why?
(He's so strange)
And if he brought you down to your knees
Would you cry?
(He's so strange)
He frightens you so much
He could burn you with his touch
Everything has changed
He's so strangeYou've lost all track of time
The victim of a crime
He's stolen heart and soul
He's taken all controlIs this some crazy dream?
Obsession add the main theme
Though you can't see the chains
You're the prisoner of a love so strangeYou can't escape the thought of him
Do you wonder why?
(He's so strange)
And if he brought you down to your knees
Would you cry?
(He's so strange)
He frightens you so much
He could burn you with his touch
Everything has changed
He's so strangeYou can't escape the thought of him
Do you wonder why?
(He's so strange)
And if he brought you down to your knees
Would you cry?
(He's so strange)He frightens you so much
He could burn you with his touch
Everything has changed
He's so strange
