

Sarah

Eskimo Joe

Sarah, won't you tell me your name?

I've been waiting here for hours

In the garden by the flowers

You're so shy

So just open your eyes

The boys all form a line

To be written out in time

A long, long, long, long time ago

Emergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fight

And I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try

I don't know if anyone

Asked me the reason I lied

She sighed

Sarah, is she your new best friend?

One day it will end, you know it will

You're so shy

So just let it fall apart

Let it stumble in the dark

With the razors in your heart

A long, long, long, long time ago

Emergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fight

And I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try

I don't know if anyone

Asked me the reason I lied

She sighed, she sighed

You're so shy

Emergency

I think I am falling apart

Emergency

I think I am losing the fight

And I don't know if I can do it

I don't know if I can try
I don't know if anyone
Asked me the reason I lied
She sighed, she sighed, oh no
