

Awful Lot of Sunshine

Hugh Oliver

You can make your life a misery if you try
You can take a smile and change it to a sigh
But why not throw off that shroud
And then look beyond the clouds
Thereâ€™s an awful lot of sunshine in the sky
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da

You may find your love has left you high and dry
You may find better forms on which to lie
But if you open up your eyes
Youâ€™ll enjoy a nice surprise
â€™Cause thereâ€™s an awful lot of sunshine in the sky
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da

Oh itâ€™s hard to predict about the weather
And you may decide to resign
But if you should get it together
Blue skies will follow
The sun, it will shine

You may search in vain to find the answer why
Or surrender to your grief and start to cry
But just look around instead
At the view above your head
â€™Cause thereâ€™s an awful lot of sunshine in the sky
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da dee dum

It may be dark
But then return to fine
Blue skies will come around
The will start to shine
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da

You may feel that fortuneâ€™s out to black your eye
But youâ€™ll find your troubles vanish by and by
You should wipe your grief away
Give a welcome to the day
â€™Cause thereâ€™s an awful lot of sunshine in the sky
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da

â€~Cause thereâ€™s an awful lot of sunshine in the sky
Dee da dee da dee da dee da dee da
