Stumble

Jeremy Rench

Stumble back into the light
and see if they notice
If waking up gives me the right to piss away All This Then come back later tonight I'll show you what Lost is Climb up on my back I'll carry you home

Yes, I'm goin for it
Its coming for me
And I am losing sleep
My imagination is plotting against me

And it aint my fault, you see 'Cause you're not here with me an' I'm not much without you I'm just me

Faith, I am Here, Hopeful mending on my back It's a recipe, for learning what I lack

And it aint your fault, its true
'Cause I'm not there with you and you're not "us" without Me

Well, my friend, another memory
Keep it somewhere safe Better than Half Dead and Wide Awake Stay with me t' The End, I'm askin
The road forever bends But I'm sure right Here's where it begins

Stumble back into the light
