It Hurts

Ayo

It's my broken heart
When two break up
One is left with a broken heart
It ain't easy to look up
Believe in love, have faith in god'Cause when it hurts, oh it hurts
And there ain't no words
There ain't nothing, nothing one can doWhen two, two break up
One is down, frustrated and stuck
Trust me, it ain't easy to look up
Believe in love and rely God'Cause when it hurts, oh it hurts
And there ain't, there ain't no words
There ain't nothing, nothing one can do
There ain't nothing, nothing you can do
There ain't nothing, nothing I can do
