

The Carpet

He Is Legend

Let's call it quits get lost you're pretty when you're soft you know
stop acting tough and rough you know i've had enough let's goone of these days...With your sharp tongue i got stung
and you're laughing like it's fun but i got swoll'
And now i'm sprung
actin' dumb
You should see what you've become Let me goone of these daysreal soon, real soon i'll send you packin'
over the Moon
real soon, real soon
I don't need you back here
your attitude
real soon, real soonSMASH! BANG! POW! BOOM! see what you made me do?Now i never have nobody to run to and i'm terrified of another run-through well you have a heart that's cold and run-through how could you let them do that to you? i wish i'd had met you when you had warm blood but Baby, you're ice cold and that don't feel good So catch on fire like i knew you would catch on fire baby treat me like you shouldreal soon, real soon i'll send you packin'
over the Moon
real soon, real soon
your attitude
real soon, real soonSCRATCH, KICK, BITE, BRUISE. see what we had to lose?Take a second to let it all sink in that you only call me when you've been drinking i've gotta curb your way of thinking i'm not gonna hurt you, i'm gonna bash your brains in All work and no play has made me dull i couldn't have your heart so i'll take your skull so catch on fire like i knew you would catch on fire like a good girl shouldone of these daysReal soon, Real soon"You've had your whole fucking life to think things over, what good's a few minutes more gonna do you now?

Wendy, Darling, Light of my life...
I'm not gonna hurt you..
Im just gonna bash your brains in.
I'm gonna bash 'em right the fuck in."
