

Riders of the Dawn

Twilight Force

Tales of a mighty order, Echoes from the past
Ancient legend of a kingdom in a time of need
Riding high, riding fast. Riding for the glory
Forces of mighty riders, heroes on noble steeds Guardians of the kingdom far beyond
Defenders in the light of dawn Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with speed of might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with hope and might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
Roaming over grasslands, roaming over plains
Fighting legendary creatures to protect the realm
Far and near, all around; horizons fading
Darkness descending, it will soon be upon us all Spawns of unlight, titans from the past
The time has come for light to shine Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with speed of might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with hope and might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with speed of might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
Run, we will run with the power of the sun
Ride with hope and might
Ride, we will ride with the power far and wide
Riders of the dawn
