At My Heels

Daedelus

I'm in the belly of a canyon
I can't come up with any reason
Wild ghost is followin' me
Wild ghost is followin' me
I got some [fear] for the [long]ing
I got the pillow for the bad dreams
The apparition dancing with me
Stepping down all over my feet
There is no key to my gate
But you can still come around
Lean your ladder against my window
And I'll come down
I'll come down
Sometimes I don't know what I'm seeing
Who's keeping track of all that's breathing?

There's a world that's waitin' for me
There's a world that's waitin' for me
I'm in the belly of a canyon
I can't come up with any reason
Wild ghost is following me
Wild ghost is following me
There is no key to my gate
But you can still come around
Lean your ladder against my window
And I'll come down
I'll come down
There is no key to my gate
But you can still come around
Lean your ladder against my window
And I'll come down
I'll come down
