

Bedroom Scene

DeRevo

Underneath the table for shade, I leave you to the living again
Arabesque a flowery grave, I watch a real star winning Over this twilight, shouting at Jesus
Absolute closeness, could be beneath usIf you lose yourself through touch
Lose yourself in love
But it leaves me nothing to know
Just a stationary role, in your bedroom sceneMaybe what I'm trying to say is
I lost you in translation
To lover from the hand of a friend
Too much too hard to mentionSo lose yourself through touch
Lose yourself in loveLose yourself through touch
Lose yourself in love
Lose yourself through touch
Lose yourself in love
