Rose Mountain

Screaming Females

Please won't you bury me on rose mountain
I'm so small, I'll be in peace
On rose mountain
White lines slice the dark highway
I'm shattered on the slayI'm nothing like the others
My brain is deep
I'm walking on the moon
I'm nothing like the others
I was made just for youPlease won't you bury me on rose mountain
Speak of my legacy
On rose mountain
White lines slice the dark highway
I'm shattered on the slayI'm nothing like the others
My brain is deep
I'm walking on the moon
I'm nothing like the others
I was made just for youWell I'm in the rush of seasons
Rose withered, flat, and dry
No irrational, no reason
So I won't tryI'm nothing like the others
My brain is deep
I'm walking on the moon
I'm nothing like the others
I was made just for you
