

It Don't Hurt Like It Used To

Billy Currington

I had a couple beers with one of my friends â€‹Told him just how our story ends â€‹Did all I could to try to make it work â€‹But you drug my heart through the Alabama dirt, hey â€‹I've been out the house, climbin' them walls â€‹Checkin' that calendar, exin' days off, hey â€‹Hit another bar, call another friend â€‹Throw a few down, tell the story again â€‹Hey, hey, what can I say?
 â€‹I can just lie and say it's all okay â€‹Oh-ho, what can I do? â€‹Been goin' through Hell gettin' over you â€‹But it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to â€‹No it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to â€‹I'm finally gettin' out back into the world â€‹Life is good, I'll marry a girl â€‹She got a beautiful heart, eyes are blue â€‹I don't hardly ever think about you, hey â€‹Hey, hey, what can I say?
 I can just lie and say it's all okay
 Oh-ho, what can I do?
 Been goin' through hell gettin' over you
 But it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to No, it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used toâ€‹Sometimes I find peace of mind in a bottle of wine â€‹Sometimes I break down and cry â€‹Hey, hey, what can I say?
 I can just lie and say it's all okay
 Oh-ho, what can I do?
 Been goin' through hell gettin' over youâ€‹Hey, hey, what can I say?
 I can just lie and say it's all okay
 Oh-ho, what can I do?
 Been goin' through hell gettin' over you
 But it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to No it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to â€‹No it don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used toIt don't hurt, it don't hurt like it used to, hey
