

Larger Than Life

Robyn Cage

Picture of a girl, a smile in her eyes
That's a face I don't recognize
I'm someone else, that girl is gone
I lost myself, where'd I go wrong? We walked on holy ground
We took a sacred vow
You stripped me of my power
You broke me down I used to be a Goddess, a Priestess
In your eyes
I used to be stronger, stand taller
Larger than life
Now you've cut me down so small
I don't exist at all I built a shrine in my heart
You were divine at the start
You took my pride, took my soul
I pray for you to let me go We walked on holy ground
We took a sacred vow
You stripped me of my power
You broke me down I used to be a Goddess, a Priestess
In your eyes
I used to be stronger, stand taller
Larger than life
Now you've cut me down so small
I don't exist at all I don't need your love and I don't need your lies
I'm burning every memory that brought me down to size
Standing in the ashes, like a phoenix I will rise.... 'Cause I'm a Goddess, a Priestess
Larger than life
I'll be stronger, stand taller
Larger than life
I'm a Goddess, a Priestess
Larger than life
I'll be stronger, stand taller
Larger than life
