Set It To Blow

Vaux

This is the anthem of the year
And I fucking gold.
They say what you wanna hear
and I know Il never die old
This is the anthem of the year
And I ?I ?I ?I want you to wait.
I want you to see.
I want you to notice
All thatl never be.Seen signs do you taste it?
Unlike most anything.
Seen signs, you have no place in this world.This is the anthem of the year
And I fucking gold.
They say what you wanna hear
and I know Il never die oldBurn your bridges, we call.
Burn your bridges, we shout.
Your fire is burning out.Seen signs do you taste it?
Unlike most anything.
Seen signs, you have no place in this world.You had it but you lost it to play it safe
And we set it.
You take the wrong road if it was the easy way.
Got to get it.
You sooner be forgotten than die with grace
And we set it.
So no one listens when you say what you say.
Got to get it.Yeah, yeah, yeah.
Youe part of the show.
Yeah, yeah, yeah.
We set it to blow.
Yeah, yeah, yeah.This is the anthem of the year
And I fucking gold.
They say what you wanna hear
and I know Il never die old
This is the anthem of the year
And I fucking gold.
They say what you wanna hear
and now I ?I ?We set it,
We set it ablaze.
It too far along and it wrong to change ways.
We set it,

We set it ablaze.
It too far gone to be home anyways.You had it but you lost it to play it safe
And we set it.
You take the wrong road if it was the easy way.
Got to get it.
You sooner be forgotten than die with grace
And we set it.
So no one listens when you say what you say.
Got to get it.This is the anthem
Burn out, die young.
This is the anthem
Burn out, die young.
This is the anthem
Burn out, die young.
This is the anthem
Burn out, die young.
