

Shout Out Loud (Live from KCRW)

Amos Lee

A thousand empty window
And only half the lights are out
I wonder what these people's lives
What they might be all about Do they got a lover
And could they have a family
Could it be they're just as lonesome
As you and me I wanna shout out, shout out loud
Why don't you all just come on out
And we can tear it all down, yeah White lights burning
Down an empty avenue
I wonder if their driver
Found someone he can go on home to I wanna shout out, shout out loud
Why don't you all just come on out
And we can tear it all down, yeah 'Cause everybody's got a part in the game
And everybody's got a cross they can claim
And everybody's got somebody to blame
But we all must find our own way, yeah, yeah I wanna shout out, shout out loud
I wanna shout out, shout out loud
I wanna shout out, shout out loud Shout out loud, yeah, yeah
Shout out loud, yeah, yeah
Shout out loud, shout out loud
Shout out loud
