Broken Soul

Krome

Standing in the shadow
Behind a wall
Made of fear
Cracking the foundations
Dissolve the glue
With my tears
(pre-chorus)
Now I'm standing at the crossroads
And I know which way to go
But I'm not strong enough to get there on my own
(chorus)
I'm at an end
Losing control
Trying to mend
This Broken Soul
Give me one more chance
For me to show
How much I need you to heal my broken soul
Cannot break cycle
Rat on the wheel spinning clear
Finding such frustrations a
World undone horizons near
(pre-chorus)
Now I'm standing at the crossroads
And I know which way to go
But I'm not strong enough to get there on my own

(chorus)
I'm at an end
Losing control
Trying to mend
This Broken Soul
Give me one more chance
For me to show
How much I need you to heal my broken soul
Now I'm living at the mercy of the hourglass
Threatened by the mysteries of the day
All I have are the memories and the photographs
Regretting things that I forgot to say

Standing in the shadow
Behind a wall
Made of fear
(pre-chorus)
Now I'm standing at the crossroads
And I know which way to go
But I'm not strong enough to get there on my own
(chorus)
I'm at an end
Losing control
Trying to mend
This Broken Soul
Give me one more chance
For me to show
How much I need you to heal my...my broken soul
