Reel Me In

Aqualung

Don't listen to the TV
And don't listen to the radio
Don't let anybody tell you
That this old ship, is going down
Black bottom of the ocean
Picked up by an invisible hand
Air filling down my insides
And now the sea, the stars, the sky
The sea, the sea, the sea
Washed away down a water fall
I got swallowed by the undertow
I twist and turn but I know
There's only one way out of this
So honey if you're listening
Press your ear to the overflow
'Cause I'm just down here praying
Someone hears my S.O.S
I'm drowning, now reel me in
Fly back into the lift boat
Where did the women and the children go?
Are these men my only friends?
And we laugh, we laugh, we cry, we cry
And off the boats into the crowds and ooh
And from off the crowds and 'till we're sleepy, ooh
Pull the covers up to my chin
Now, we fall and rise, we rise and fall
We leave it all behind
Washed away down a water fall
I got swallowed by the undertow
I twist and turn but I know
There's only one way out of this
So if there's anybody listening
Press your ear to the radio
'Cause I'm just down here praying
Someone hears my S.O.S
I'm drowning, now reel me in
Reel me in
Walked back along the gangway
Back to the arms of the ones I love

I guess you guys keep your secrets
Hello, hello, hello
Washed away down a water fall
I got swallowed by the undertow
I twist and turn but I know
There's only one way out of this
So if there's anybody listening
Press your ear to the radio
'Cause I'm just down here praying
Someone hears my S.O.S
Washed away down a water fall, ooh
I twist and turn but I know
There's only one way out of this
So if there's anybody listening
Press your ear to the radio
'Cause I'm just down here praying
Someone hears my S.O.S
I'm drowning, now reel me in
Reel me in, reel me in
Don't listen to the TV
Don't listen to the radio
