Intro

Jimmy Davis

They can't define this, there's no definition
I am the unexplainable I am a premonition
I am the mastery of repetition
I am sight to the blind and the ability of the deaf to listen
This is the personification of bravery
I am Nat Turner fighting for freedom against slavery
This is William Wallace and the resistance
I am Haile Gebrselassie going the distance
This is Zinedine ball at his feet
I am Maximus rallying the call to his fleet
John Lennon saying imagine
I am Saint George reaching for his sword and fucking slaying the dragon
Abdel Nasser overthrowing the monarchy
Bhagat Singh fighting the British rule of the colony
James Connolly , the ICA the ISRP
The genius, charisma and words of Mohammed Ali
Gandhi, Nelson Mandela and King Martin
The non-violent voice of the third world starving
Bob singing one love, spirit of the Galgael
Quest could be perilous but the freedom ship shall sail
