A Big Man

John Mayall

It takes a big, big man to handle everything
It takes a big, big man to handle everything
Were the people wearin and it doesnt meanWe need a big, big man to look out all our fears
Youre a big, big man to shoot the world in tears
Oh, yes, world of troubled yearsIt takes a big, big man to handle all the men
It takes a big, big man to handle all those lands
No one seems to have a planIt takes a big, big man to make the world go round
It takes a big, big man to make the world go round
Hey Miss Junkyard, no one can be foundBig, big man no one can be found
Takes a big, big man to make the world go round
Looking for a leader, no one can be found
Takes a big, big man to make the world go round
