Self Made Man

Morcheeba

Sun shines
They must've made the hay
Hey, make the hay
Got mounting bills
You need to pay
No time to play
There's no such thing
As a self made man
'Cause everyone
Needs a helping hand
There's no such thing
As a self made man
Enjoy the floors
In the best laid plans
Though sacrifices all the way
All along the way
Indulge in vices so cliche
Shame it's so cliche
There's no such thing
As a self made man
It's not too hard
To understand
There's no such thing
As a self made man
Enjoy the floors
In the best laid plans
Now, all your friends
Have flown away
Flown, flown away
You blew your chances
All away
Blown, blown away
There's no such thing
As a self made man
'Cause everyone
Needs a helping hand
There's no such thing
As a self made man
Enjoy the floors

In the best laid plans
No such thing as
A self made man
No such thing as
A self made man
